

❖ Health Inspector - Protects the health of our residents through inspections of food service establishments, making sure that proper temperatures are maintained; food is labeled properly and up-to-date; and that the establishments are clean and free of debris. She also ensures that all food service personnel are properly trained and licensed.