It was determined that the agreement itself includes both vacant and foreclosed properties.
VOTE: Trustees Oszakiewski, Warner, Sparr and Rusch, aye. Trustee Symonds and Kuban voted no. Motion passed.

ADMIN, COMMUNICATIONS & RECREATION: Trustee Oszakiewski
Trustee Oszakiewski commented that the 8/23/18 edition of the DesPlaines Valley News when quoting details of the regular board meeting held on August 13, 2018 failed to provide a true picture. He stated that the care and upkeep of vacant or abandoned properties should not be the responsibility of taxpaying residents of the village. The lien-holding agency should be funding necessary maintenance. The Village of Justice has expended close to $200,000.00 of village funds to maintain these properties. Prochamps software will help to provide information so that the lienholder can be held financially accountable for the upkeep of abandoned and vacant properties. The Prochamps registration fee will provide up to $25,000.00 annually to offset our maintenance expenses. We will no longer need to expend unbudgeted village dollars for these expenses. All department will have immediate access to the information that is provided, including our legal team.

SECOND: Trustee Kuban seconded for discussion

Trustee Kuban mentioned that we only have information reflecting the per-cleaning charge, not the tasks to be performed each time. Trustee Rusch stated that he has found Bloomingtree to be extremely cooperative and willing to do what is required should any additional or missed tasks be pointed-out to him.

VOTE: Trustees Sparr, Symonds, Rusch, Oszakiewski and Warner, aye. Trustee Kuban voted no. Motion passed.

Trustee Kuban asked if she might provide her response now to the comments made by Trustee Oszakiewski regarding the Prochamps registrations. She continued stating that currently, our expenses for maintaining vacant and abandoned properties are being recovered by liens once the properties change hands in any manner. This is simply a money-making scheme on the backs of the residents.

PUBLIC COMMENTS:
Mr. John Small commented thanked the board for passing the two ordinances that require the registration of abandoned and foreclosed properties. He supports the initiative.

Mrs. Liz Chicola questioned the upcoming referendum to add the 1% sales tax.

Mayor Wasowicz explained that to pay our matching funds to perform the tollway project the 1% will be necessary to fund the bonds that will need to be issued.

Mrs. Chicola added that this may chase purchasers to our neighboring towns. Bridgeview and Hickory Hills already collect the additional tax.

Mrs. Chicola then asked since Szarotka’s changed hands, why did we not require that it become handicapped accessible.
Mayor Wasowicz replied that it did not change hands but is owned by a brother and sister and the brother took over management from the sister. Although, they are preparing plans for a ramp to at least access the main floor since other options are not feasible.
Mrs. Chicola added that the restrooms also need adjustments for accessibility.

ADJOURNMENT:
MOTION: Trustee Sparr Moves: To adjourn.
SECOND: Trustee Warner
