RE: Notes from 2019 Municipal Clerks Institute Training

Each year, the State of Illinois sponsors a one-week training and update for the municipal Clerks in Illinois. Since my election to clerk in 2017, I have attended the workshop each year, now totaling three years.

Known as "The Clerks Conference" by those attending, the week is action packed and provides great information for clerks to take back to their respective municipalities. The conference also provides the group with a "full-day" of information related to changes in laws, issues facing residents and a host of other "hot topics."

There were several "hot topics" discussed this year. These topics were categorized as the following:

- Recreational cannabis
- Expanded Gaming
- The 2020 Census
- Strengthening of Ethics Compliance
- Changes to FOIA and OMA

As part of this report, I will provide some of the high level "take-aways" from these topics.

RECREATIONAL CANNABIS

As everyone knows, the State passed the recreational marijuana bill which goes into effect on January 1, 2020. Since most municipalities have not dealt with the issues surrounding a marijuana dispensary, this session was quite interesting.

The person leading the training for this class was the director of the medical marijuana dispensary; The village of Justice had actually worked with him when the medical dispensary was opening here. He currently oversees the growing/testing facilities in the state.

Key points for this class included:

- A tax that municipalities needed to "opt-in" by October 1
- Villages that have Medical dispensaries are the first to be eligible to have recreational facilities. If the board "opts out" of recreational marijuana, the medical dispensary will automatically (By State Law) have a license to sell recreational marijuana in two years.
- Villages need to decide whether or not to allow recreational marijuana licenses by the end of November. This includes zoning requirements, number of dispensaries as well as any rules related to public use.
- The State is focused on creating a "code of standards" for its employees related to consumption/use of recreational cannabis. They strongly urge all municipalities to do the same.

EXPANDED GAMING

This class was conducted by the State Police who are currently in charge of monitoring the current gaming rules and vetting the current holders of licenses. The overview of the expanded gaming was given to the group. Currently, the subject most concerning for the local legislators is about the Sports Betting that has been approved by the State legislators.

Also discussed during this class was the 6th Video terminal which is now allowed for. A question about license fees for gaming machines was brought up by several clerks that work in non-home rule communities. They are concerned that each machine is taxed a mandatory $25 per machine. Home rule communities are allowed to charge a tax to the vendor per machine, whereas non-home rule communities are not. I was personally confused since Justice is non-home rule yet charges a significantly higher fee for each machine. I encourage our board to re-visit the rules concerning this tax.
The question of gaming vendors contributing to political parties in a municipality was also asked. A show of hands in the room related to those communities that allow for this proved it is a big problem and the attorneys agreed to look into this. It seemed about 20 of us raised our hands saying that yes, the liquor commissioner accepts donations from gaming companies.

Finally, the subject of adding casinos entering the state was a lengthy subject. At the time of the class, the Tinley Park casino had just been nixed.

THE 2020 CENSUS

The biggest take-away for the census for 2020 is the ability for each community to get a total count. The state of Illinois has steadily lost at least one seat in the house of representatives in each of the past 4 census counts. The fear is that in the 2020 census, we will lose two seats. As you'd expect, the clerks offered several thoughts on why people are leaving Illinois however the sad fact is the federal funding dollars that are lost per capita is extreme. Because of this, the governor as allocated 19 million in grant funding to help Illinois ensure a total count.

In most communities, the municipal clerk is charged with managing the census. Not the case here in Justice. I was removed from participation or management of the census, so I am hoping the mayor and his team take advantage of the monies available to help get this important count complete. Our tax revenue is "counting" on it.

STRENGTHENING OF ETHICS COMPLIANCE / FOIA & OMA UPDATES

Well-known and respected attorneys from Aancel Glink led this discussion. The updates and information took nearly two hours. Here are the highlights:

- The gift ban / rules were reviewed and clarified by questions from the group
- Conversation around who needs to complete the statement of economic interest surfaced. Those needing to file were then reviewed with the group. The rules are found in the IML handbook, 2018 edition. Two case studies were talked about during the sessions; How are elected and appointed officials held accountable to answer to the SOEI honestly and What responsibility does the mayor and board have to ensure the statements are completed and completed accurately.
- FOIA and OMA laws are being updated to ensure open meetings error on the side of the resident. If a municipality does not have meeting rules in place and in the code book, rules cannot be changed per meeting. If no rules exist, none can be implemented, even by the chairperson of the meeting. This has happened in several municipalities as they conduct informational and board meeting sessions regarding recreational marijuana.
- It was suggested that members of the board or appointed officials not bring cell phones into scheduled meetings. All texts sent/received in an open meeting are subject to FOIA. This included those on personal devices.
- The closed session was discussed and a whole training of parliamentary procedures was reviewed. A closed session for the purpose of board evaluation has been approved as long as a third-party facilitator, the village attorney and the elected officials participate.

Please let me know if you'd like additional information. Very good use of my time and the taxpayers' expense

Thanks,
Sue
